Custom Sawing - Saw Mill.
The belief in ghosts, hobgoblins and witches, was at one time almost universal. The idea that houses were haunted, that graveyards were patrolled, at night by the spirits of the dead, and that evil-disposed persons, were possessed by diabolical spirits, controlled by a being black as ebony with horns, tail and one hoof like an ox, was as firmly believed as one's own existence. It was a time when the assaults were made on the senses.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Edwards mourn the death of their daughter twenty-four days old. The little daughter was sick only a couple of days and died Monday morning of acute bronchitis.
This child has been an object of great interest to many because of its extreme smallness, weighing only about 2 1/2 lbs. at death. At a surgery finger ring could easily slip over the hand to the shoulder and ones thumb nail readily covered the whole hand when clenched.
Mrs. Edwards has been in delicate health for several months but is rapidly improving. They have the sympathy of many friends and their bereavement.
